The health of all athletes, visitors, volunteers, exhibitors and partners is our top priority. Therefore, the organizer will present a comprehensive protection and hygiene concept before the event, which fully takes into account the provisions that were valid until then.

It is mandatory for exhibitors to comply with the measures stipulated therein. For this reason, an hygiene officer for every exhibition booth must be named in the attached registration form.

As of today, the following regulations apply to exhibitors:

This hygiene officer is responsible for compliance with the hygiene rules within the exhibition stand as well as regular cleaning and disinfection of all relevant surfaces (sales counters, changing rooms, clothes racks, etc.) within the exhibition stand.
